FOREWORD

For our 1951 LA AIROSA theme we have chosen the most colorful saga of our country's history, the West, and its representative character, the Panhandle cowboy. We have attempted to depict this West Texan as a typical reminder of this wonderful land from which sprang the customs, traditions and Spirit of A.H.S. We hope that we have captured all the memories, both great and small, of the events of our days in the "Friendly City."

F. T. and Ara

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK . . .

To one whom her fellow workers respect because she is careful, understanding, and has a sense of humor; whom her husband cherishes for making home a pleasant place; and whom her students love and honor for giving so freely of her time, her way of making physics problems simple and interesting, and her sincere interest in each one of her students and the entire senior class. To this lovely person, Mrs. C. C. Walden, we affectionately dedicate this book.

Howdy, Podner:

It's shore been a pleasure to have you around the AHS spread and now that it's round-up and brandin' time, I just hate to see yuh trail-blazin' a new spread. We've been mighty happy havin' yuh grazin' on our range, Sandie, and while 'tis a big ranch to let a feller stray around in, we hope you got yure share of the vittals. You know, Podner, I been thinkin' what a herd of mavericks we took over last fall to feed out this winter. Why, we took over brands from Nixson, Mann's and Houston's, along with quite a few promising dogies from other spreads. And while you critters didn't measure up for no blue ribbons as you were herded into the cuttin' lot, it's mighty pleasin' to see such results of what our old Sandie ration of friendliness, democracy, work, co-operation, and a bit of neighborliness has done for such a wild and rangy bunch o' critters.

Remember how we had to drive and drag you 'round with ropes for a few days....How some had to be snubbed to get the mesquite out o' their' craws? Well, the fust thing we knowed you were follerin' around like a motherless calf, and we got a lot o' pure-bred-lookin' stock here, too..... Dress out about 99 per cent, I figure. Yes, I reckon the climate of the AHS Range and the feedin' we put on 'em does things proud of this year's crop of yearlins, two and three-year-olds.... Makes us mighty just the way the market world wants to take 'em over. But, Podner, I gotta hankerin' I'm gonna be mighty lonesome this summer when I look over the main pasture and find my prize stock blazin' new trails and seekin' wider ranges. But that's one of the set-backs a trail boss jest has to suffer. But the way I figure it out, you've been goin' and a-comin' enuff to know your way around and this year's crop is gonna make out all right, wherever their trails lead. I just hope you critters remember the trails you leave and will come back to the "AHS" range once in awhile. I hope none of you get caught in no blizzards and fail to show up.

And I guess I won't be a-seein' some of you again 'til the big round-up. And I hope from now 'til then that each of you critters find greener pastures with plenty of salt licks and cool, clear water.

So long, Podner, keep those saddle girts tight!

CHIEF ASSISTANTS

Mrs. Haynie, dean of girls, is a friend to every girl in AHS. Her helpful suggestions are welcomed by girls seeking her advice or counseling. Her untiring efforts, backed by ability and understanding make her, not only an advisor, but a friend.

Mrs. Thomas Haynie
Dean of Girls
Texas U.

Mr. Kniseley, in his first year with the Sandies, has proved his capability in dealing with students and their problems. Those who know him-know his sense of humor and congeniality. His unselfish effort is poured into AHS to make it a better place through discipline and understanding.

Mr. V. V. Kniseley
Assistant Principal
Texas U.

These nine men, giving generously of their time and effort, are responsible for pleasant school conditions. Although far too little acknowledgement is made of their help to the community, school, and the individual student, the school board works with untiring effort for a better school district. Selected by the public, these men are of the highest quality in dealing with the full load of responsibility. Members of the school board from left to right are: Gus R. Roberts, C. Lane McAfee, H. Sim Kelly, E. M. Blackburn, Bob P. Wilson, George M. Waddill, Herman Smith, Charles M. Rogers and Herbert Willborn.

SCHOOL BOARD

Mr. Charles M. Rogers
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. E. M. Blackburn, Jr.
President of Board

The counselors have one of the most difficult jobs in AHS. Problems of schedules, jobs, social relations and family relations are brought daily to them. Mrs. Burkhalter sponsors the Student Council and Miss Ulm sponsors the Future Teachers of America.

College requirements and help in arranging schedules is a daily duty of theirs. Students seeking jobs and information are met with a sincere desire to help.

R. A. Selby, Assistant Superintendent, also is in charge of guidance and secondary curriculum in both the junior and senior high schools of Amarillo.

LIBRARIANS

The librarians here are helping students select books, only one of their many duties. Mrs. McCuan, registrar, is distributing mail and Miss Henderson, Mr. Norman's secretary, is mimeographing. Mrs. James is filling the thousands of attendance records of students in Mr. Kniseley's office.

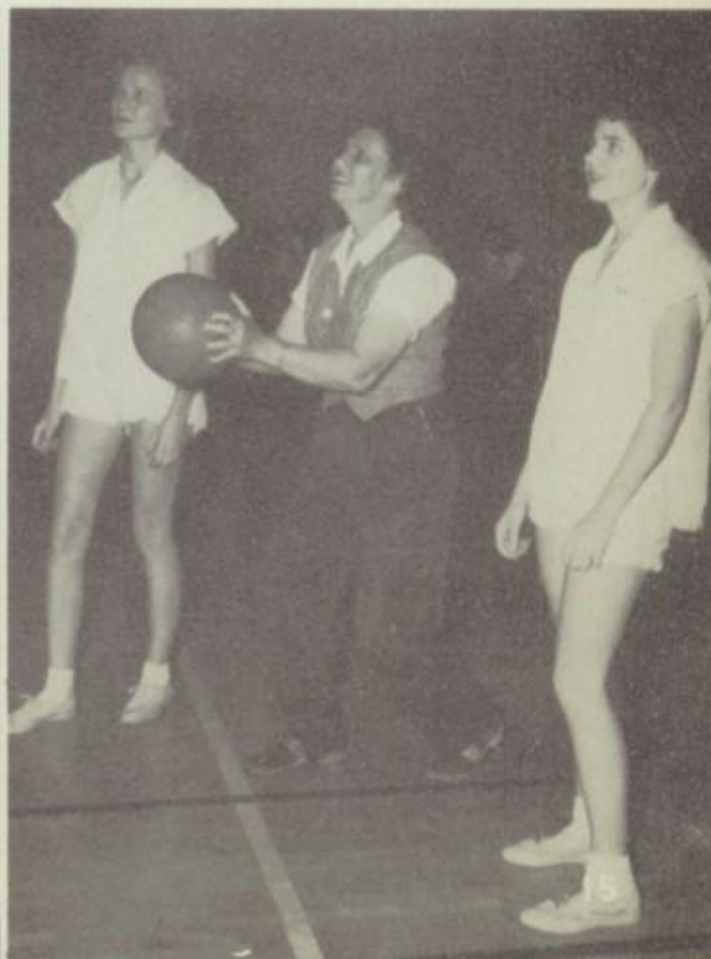
GIRL'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

These shots of the girls' P.E. classes give a cross section of a few of the activities. Familiar "chalk talks" help girls' apprehension, while actual games and tumbling develop coordination and skill. Under the capable guidance of Miss Williams and Mrs. Foreman, the girls receive a well balanced program for mental and physical development.



ENGLISH

English Classes are planned to give students a basic understanding of our own language and a foundation for foreign languages.

A student reads a theme before the class, acquiring skill in reading and composition. The other students are looking at the workbook which provides actual problems to be solved.

DRAMATICS

JOURNALISM

Special talents have a wide field for expansion in AHS. Shown here, the dramatics class rehearses for a new play, which will be fun for the school and the actors. Practice in speech makes students express themselves better in other subjects. The journalism class under Miss Whitmore studies page layouts for an issue of The Sandstorm.

Miss Ellie Whitmore
Wisconsin U.

Mrs. N. N. Whitworth
Northwestern

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Busy at work, the music department of AHS is one of the best in the state. The intentness of concentration is felt as Mr. Emmons rehearses the orchestra and Miss Thompson skillfully develops voices in one of her many individual workouts. Mr. Rowe puts his band in one of the top ratings as he drills them in marching as well as playing.

DEPARTMENT

Both the dramatic and factual sides of history are developed in AHS. Here two students are learning about current events through the American Observer, an aid in present history being made. The latest charts, maps and pamphlets are being used to give the students a clear cut picture of past history that will offer a basis for looking at the future with clear ideas.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

The foreign language department in AHS is composed of Latin and Spanish classes. These courses emphasize the understanding of our neighbors to the South and the effect of Latin on the English language. These students are studying a map of ancient Gaul.

The mathematics department gives the students a closer look at intricate and complicated math. A practical side prepares students for future work in many fields, while the other side provides a foundation for college math courses. Here a student is applying knowledge of graphs and the other is being instructed in equations. A cross section of math is presented in AHS, including algebra, solid geometry, plane geometry, business arithmetic and trigonometry.

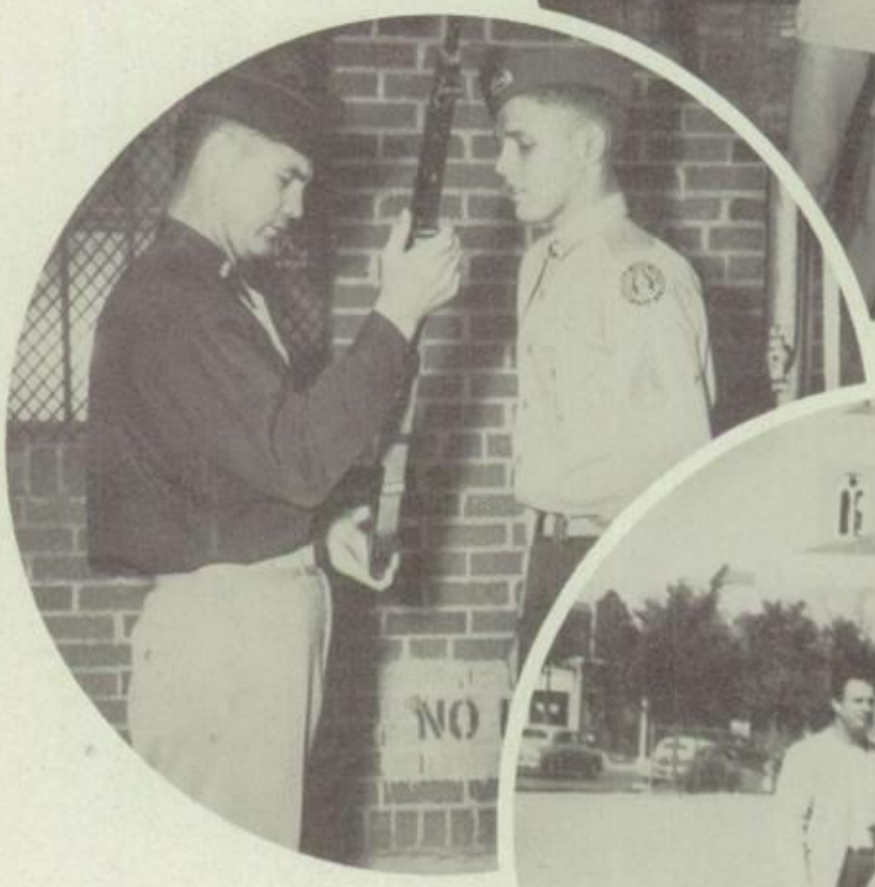
BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Boys' P.E. develops physical and mental abilities. Here football and basketball are being instructed to give the boys a better appreciation and skill in these games.



RESERVE OFFICER TRAINING CORPS

The ROTC, one of the best in the country gives boys a real understanding of leadership and discipline. This organization is among the top groups in the molding of minds and bodies. Here a boy is instructed in the mechanics of a gun in use.

SCHOOL WORKERS

The many custodians and caretakers keep AHS in order and are responsible for most of the good care of our school. Here the cafeteria women and the custodians are performing a few of their many duties. AHS would be much less attractive if it weren't for these faithful Sandies who are friends to the students as well as to the school.

BELL, JOHN CALVIN
ELLIOT, CARL
HILL, HERBERT
OWENS, JOHN

We seniors are about to leave the halls of Amarillo High School, but before we do, let us cast a backward glance over the last three years.

In 1948-49, we entered AHS as sophomores. We were awed and proud of our beautiful building and our wonderful faculty. Harold Swindell proved himself very capable as president with able assistance from Nita Johnson, vice-president, and Kathryn Bowlin, secretary. We were proud to be a part of the school whose football team went to the state finals.

When the last of May came, we proudly took our place in Amarillo High as juniors. E. G. Sanders, Ray Bingham, and Melody Starks led us as president, vice-president, and secretary, respectively.

Finally came that wonderful day when we were upperclassmen. Yes, now we are seniors. Although we have long awaited this time, the pleasure is marred by the thought of leaving school. We laugh and say we are glad, but somehow our laughter does not ring true. Even though we are a little sad we are still upholding the dignity of our wonderful class. We elected class officers who we thought were capable of directing the senior activities, and when commencement comes, we want to be able to walk with pride from the school for the last time as a part of it.

We will be back as years go by, to see teachers, friends, and the familiar halls, but it will never be the same. Take heed, sophomores and juniors, get the most out of Amarillo High School that you can, because you will not have many better times than you have here.

Seniors, may your diploma help you gain success in every way. May you fulfill your high ideals without a doubt. May your friendships multiply daily for your happiness. Keep up your courage; never shirk or quit for you get from life only what you put into it.

The purpose of Allied Youth is to present the scientific truths about alcohol and to interpret these truths in the light of their social and economic importance. Besides proving to the youth that there is a full and enjoyable alcohol-free way of life, A.Y. provides fun for its members through regular meeting and socials.

The Amarillo post with more than four hundred members holds the record of being the largest in the United States.

ALLIED YOUTH

"Going-going-gone." Stanley Pittman and Bobby Hibbs auction off one of the cakes at the A.Y. cake auction which raised money that helped send Jerry Ramsey to the Annual Planning Conference at Buck Hill Falls and the Mid-Century White House Youth Conference.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club was organized just this year. Besides holding discussions, seeing films, and having socials, the club has taken field trips to such places as Lane Ice Cream Company, Helium Plant, and Mann Bakery.

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club, sponsored by Miss Laura Roberts, was another AHS newcomer this year. The members, who are ski enthusiasts, meet twice a month to discuss skiing and its problems. In January a group of them took a skiing trip to Santa Fe.

Planning another skiing trip are the officers of the club: Nita Johnson, treasurer; Claire Smith, president; Gretchen Wolflin, corresponding secretary; Gayle Linkenhoger, vice president; and Tabor Scott, recording secretary.

Composed of students interested in teaching as a career, the Future Teachers' Club helps them develop student leadership and become acquainted with their chosen profession.

mas HUGE RAID

Miss Ellie Whitmore, right, publications adviser, was greatly assisted this year by Miss Lurline Bowman, co-business adviser. Both sponsors were ready in their spare time to accompany the staff in all its activities.

F. T. Crews, La Airosa's tall, good-looking editor, was always willing to listen to problems and offer suggestions to help the staff. His unassuming, pleasant, tireless attitude made everyone want to work.

LA AIROSA

Ara Cox seemed all smiles and remained that way for the greater part of the year. Her cheerful, helpful personality added much to the success of La Airosa. As associate editor she had much responsibility.

Hal Sullenberger, left, a first-year man, gave military shine to the ROTC section. Bonnie McNutt and Jerry Kennedy stayed after school more than once on their respective sections, faculty and publications.

Compiling the detailed class section kept this quartet busy with scissors, card indexes and paste pots. Left to right are Dorothy Burnett, Lera Hudson, Lela Hudson and Sue Keffer.

Robert Parks was the art editor this year. His position included executing the theme, drawing cartoons, and any necessary lettering or other art work. The many hours which are required to produce one division page, however, are recognized by all staff members.

LaAirosa sponsored the Popularity Ball with Valentine motif and dressed up Sandies.

STAFF ACTIVITIES

The highlight of the year is the annual "Pop" Ball. Seen here are some of the students who helped with the immense job of decorating.

(Left)
Bobby Osburn held the work-filled position of head photographer. His well-done job included assigning the other photographers as well as taking care of Favorites, Boys' Sports, and Publications sections.

(Below)
Fondly dubbed "Ears" by his fellow shutterbugs, Scott Dine put in most of his spare time in the darkroom or on the other end of the camera.

Dick Pond took many action shots for various sections including Girls' Sports, and Faculty.

(Above)
Lloyd Thompson, who was in charge of Music and ROTC sections, spent a greater portion of his time in the darkroom.

Juniors Bernie McIntosh, left, Billye Daniel, center, and Joyce Carroll were girls' sports editor, exchange editor and proofreader; respectively.

Sue Cearley, capable and hard-working editor, has served the Sandstorm well for the last three years. By mixing congeniality with her work, she has gained many friends.

THE SANDSTORM

Giving an athletic touch to the Sandstorm Staff, Julian Levine has been sports editor for the past two years. Bonnie McNutt and Jean Duvall, both juniors, were feature editors. In the background are some outstanding sports shots.

Nancy Bursey, humor columnist, made readers laugh. As editorial editor, Carolyn Higinbotham voiced the staff's opinion and policy. Joe Benham assisted the sports staff.

As news editor, Carol Bliss was Cearley's girl Friday. Bliss worked diligently, many long hours outside school making assignments, editing copy, and seeing that Sandieland was covered by The Sandstorm.

Judy Boozer, left, who has served the business staff faithfully for the past three years, was this year's business manager. The additional position of circulation manager created this year was capably filled by Priscilla Mullins.

BUSINESS

STAFFS
THE SANDSTORM

John Withers and Janelle Williamson, seated, held topnotch positions on the business staffs, Janelle being the business manager, and John her assistant. Odessa Huckabey was official typist on the LA AIROSA and THE SANDSTORM staffs and Arthur Garner kept tab of the money as bookkeeper.

AHS CHEER

Sandieland's head boosters don't want to set the world on fire—they just want to keep a bonfire of pep going all year. Besides their regular duties of decorating goal posts and leading the student body in their support of the team, the cheerleaders were busy planning pep rallies and spreading goodwill and friendship from AHS at all out-of-town and local games.

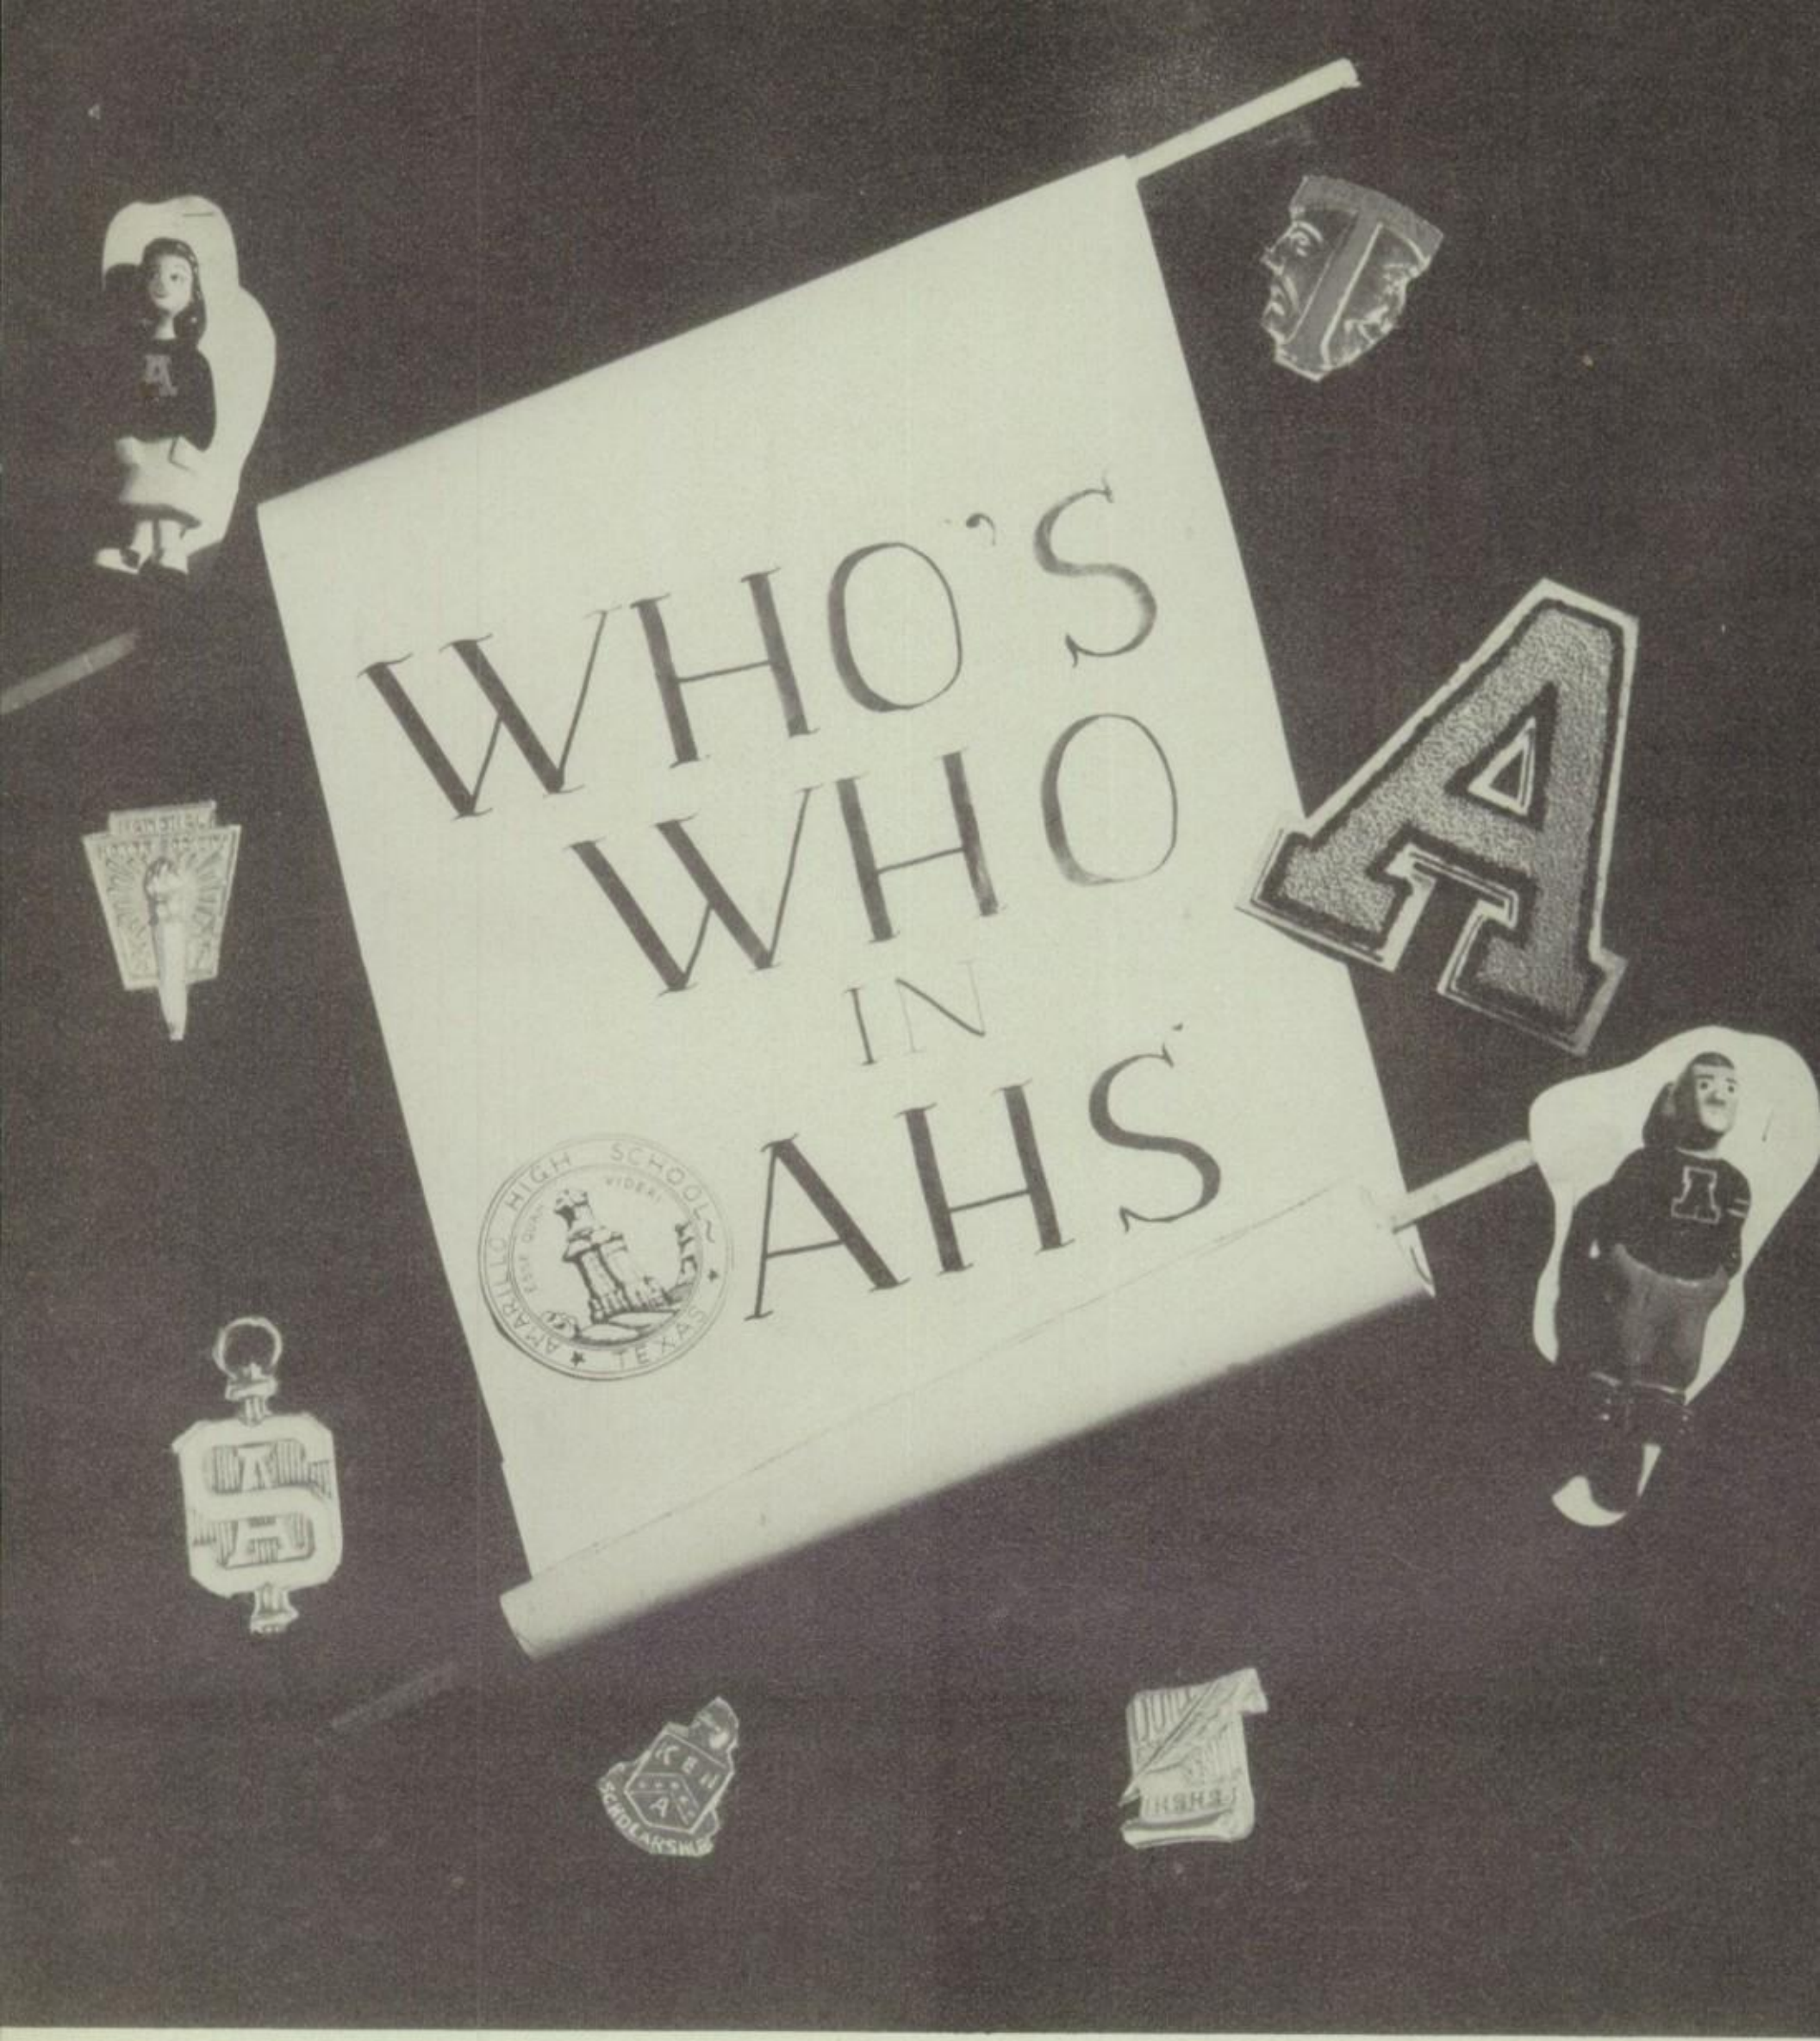
LEADERS

In the spring of 1950, the student body of AHS elected six head cheerleaders and four assistants for the 1950-51 school year. They were chosen from the student body at large on the basis of personality, leadership, and service to the school.

Jo Benesch and Bill McCrary
Assistants



Here we present our seniors, the representatives of their class and the A. H. S. tradition of Who's Who. They have character, scholarship, and dependability as their personal attributes and a sincere desire to be a part of A. H. S. in class and in extra-curricular activities. These seniors who have the honor of holding the most outstanding positions of the most prominent class, were selected by a secret committee of representative faculty members and juniors.

In A. H. S.

Curly hair, a friendly "hi," and a flair for poetry—that's RAY BINGHAM. Football and track rate high with this member of National Athletic Scholarship Society. Honors for Ray include sophomore favorite runner-up and junior vice president. As a sophomore he served on the Steering Committee.

Vivacious SUE CEARLEY, Sandstorm editor, is known as "everybody's pal." FTA secretary, a member of Quill and Scroll, Thespians, and Ken Klub, Sue is president of PHSPA. She is a former member of Student Council and the Steering Committee. Besides giving endless hours to the school paper, Susie placed among the top ten in a state poetry contest.

Scoring an excellent scholastic average, ARA COX holds membership in Ken Klub, National Honor Society, and Quill and Scroll, being vice president of the latter. "AB" has had much responsibility as associate editor of LaAirosa. Other spare moments are spent in Internos, Allied Youth and Y-Teens, helping where she can.

LaAirosa editor F. T. CREWS has become a symbol of the ideal Sandie because of his unselfish attitude. He is president of both National Honor Society and his homeroom, treasurer of Quill and Scroll, and active in Hi-Y, Band, Internos, and Ken Klub. F. T. is admired by everyone for his friendliness, patience and hard work.

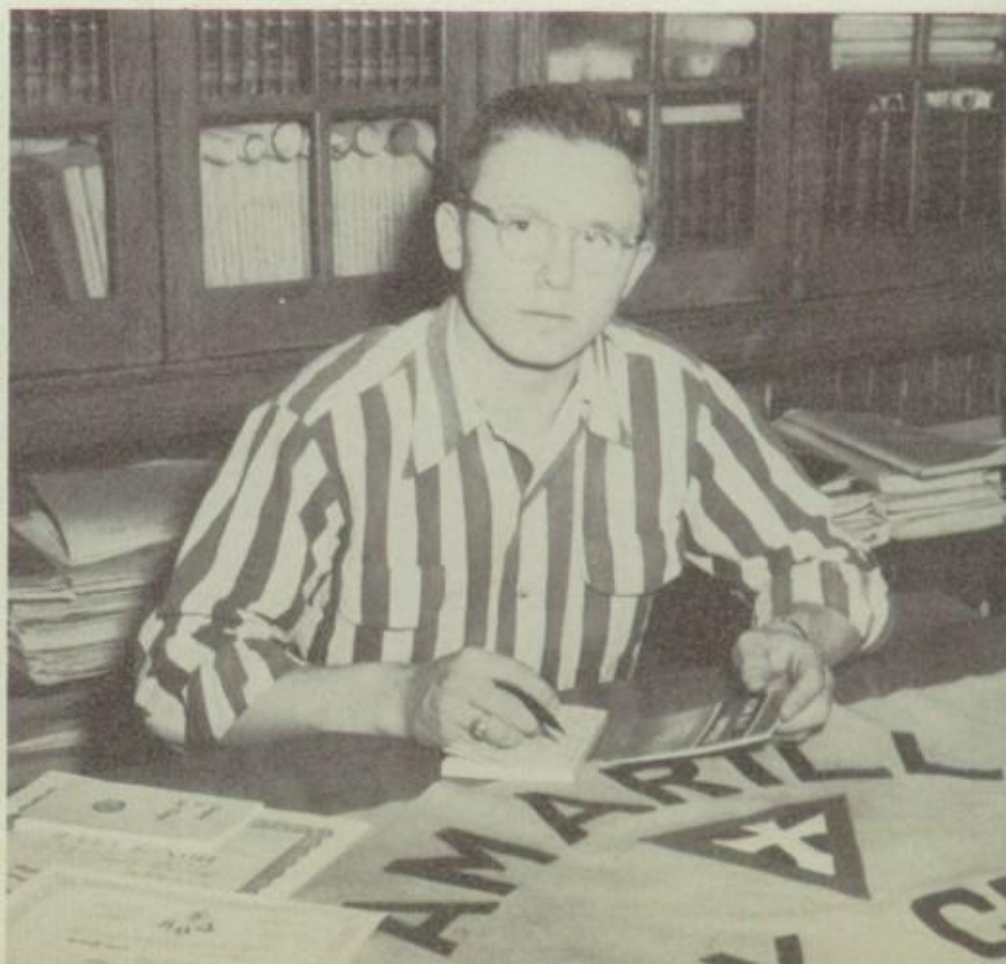
Who's Who

Destined to be a schoolmarm . . . or an actress, SHIRLEY FEIERABEND finds the decision hard. She is vice president of FTA and an active Thespian. After winning first place in declamation at the 1950 Goodwell Tournament, she starred as "Juliet" in the 1951 contest play. One ambition is to see her name in lights on a Broadway marquee.

Steering committee chairman BOBBY HIBBS finds winning friends an easy accomplishment with his smile, good humor and real Sandie spirit. Bobby is vice president of the senior class and of Allied Youth and a former treasurer of National Honor Society. He is also a member of Ken Klub and the National Athletic Scholarship Society.

Enthusiasm in AHS activities, talent in speech and dramatics, and a bright smile add up to BETTE HICKERSON. Her main interest is the Bel Canto Chorale. Thespians, Allied Youth, and Y-Teens also keep her busy. Her unselfish attitude has made AHS proud to claim her as one of its most loyal Sandies.

Versatile JOHN ISAACS joins in many AHS activities. A member of National Honor Society, National Athletic Scholarship Society, and Ken Klub, Johnny has an outstanding scholastic average. He also is president of Hi-Y, vice president of Allied Youth and Student Council, Sandie gridster, track pole vaulter and 1949 sophomore favorite. As a sophomore Johnny participated in basketball.



In A.H.S.

ED JACKSON is an all-around fellow with enough ability for the Yannigans, Sandie football, and basketball. He dropped them in favor of track where as a junior he set two records. Besides being handy with the discus and shot-put, Ed has high grades. A member of the National Athletic Scholarship Society, this tall blond guy is everyone's friend.

Aided by her glowing smile and genuine friendliness, NITA JOHNSON has won many friends with her warm personality. She is a head cheerleader, member of AY, Los Viajeros, Square Dance Club, Student Council, Ken Klub and NHS. She was chosen 1950 Los Viajeros sweetheart, sophomore favorite, senior favorite runner-up and coronation attendant.

Outstanding, especially in the field of art, is Varsity Vic, DAN BILL PAVILLARD. He holds a gold key, two certificates, and a first place for his work in art. He also is prominent among AHS scholars with memberships in Ken Klub and National Honor Society. With a special interest in sports, he has the distinction of naming Amarillo Stadium.

Active AUDREY POSEY'S excellent scholastic standing admits her to Ken Klub, National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll. Her duties as president of both Senior Y-Teens and the Y-Teen Inter-Club Council and business manager of The Sandstorm take up most of her time. She works diligently for the good of the whole school.

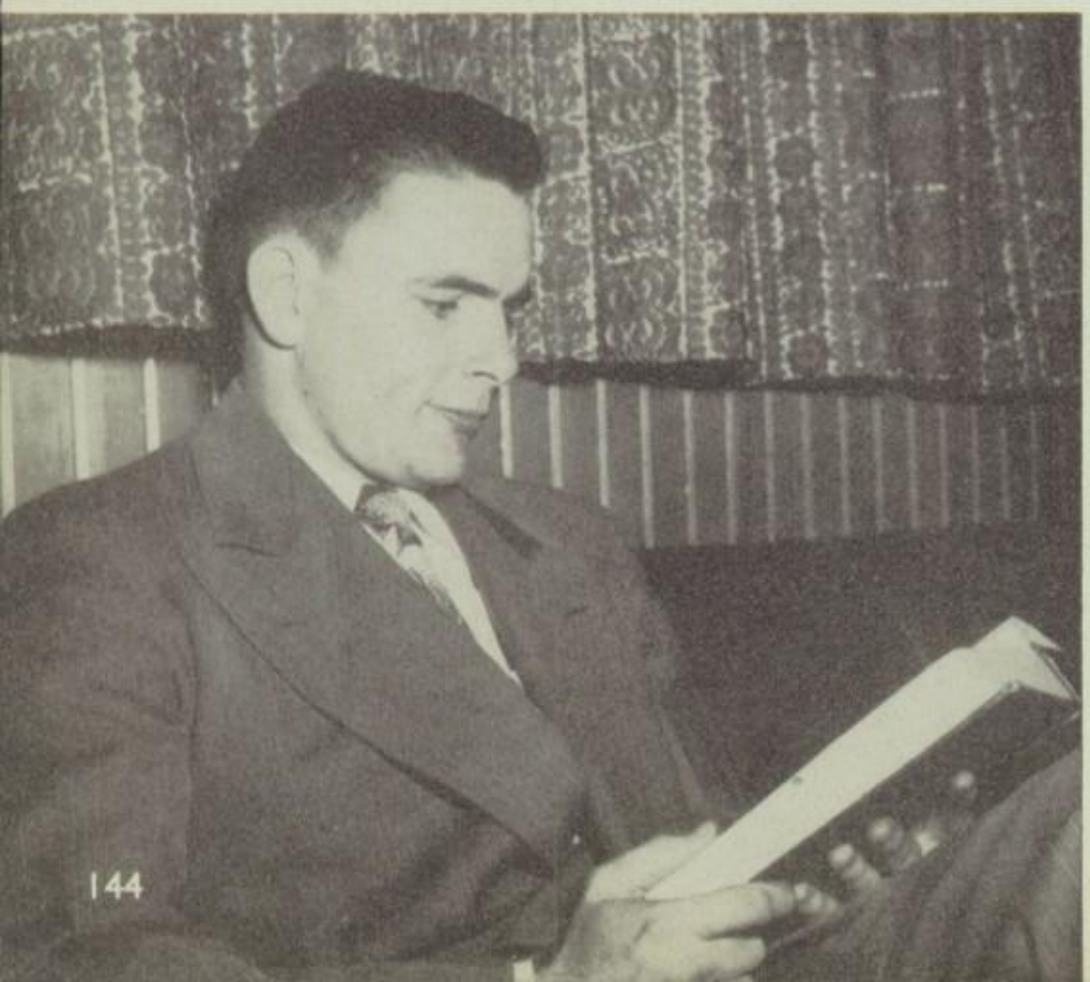
Dark-haired JERRY RAMSEY is president of both Allied Youth and Student Council, serving the former as national vice-president. Also active in Ken Klub, Sandie football, National Athletic Scholarship Society and Hi-Y, Jerry was elected senior favorite runner-up, representative to Boys' State, and delegate to two national conferences.

Senior favorite PATSY STANLEY is one of AHS's most active and popular girls. Honors given to Patsy are Bel Canto Chorale queen, ROTC sponsor and DAR girl runner-up. Her qualities of leadership have caused her to be elected Senior Y-Teen vice-president, and Student Council secretary.

"Sophomore favorite, junior favorite runner-up, senior favorite, soph president, Varsity Vic, home-room prexy, and Student Council representative," define friendly, dynamic HAROLD SWINDELL. He led the Sandies this year as football captain and played on the basketball team.

"I Speak for Democracy." RICHARD THOMPSON did and he went from state winner to the top thirteen in the nation. He is best known for his outstanding speech work, especially debate in which he won first place at the Baylor University tournament. This proud Varsity Vic is Platform Club vice-president, Ken Klub president, Student Council representative, and member of Hi-Y, NHS, and Allied Youth.



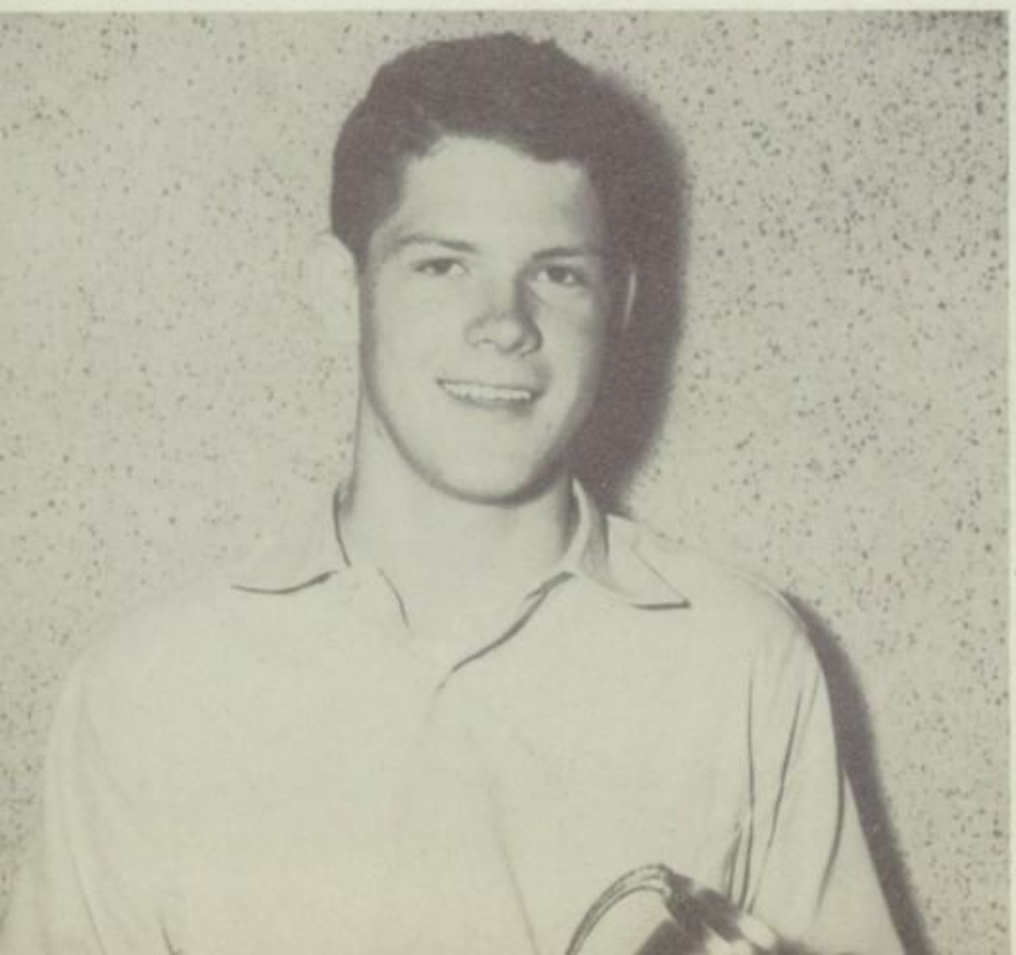
In A.H.S.

Personal charm plus interest in all AHS activities makes CAROLE WILSON a favorite. She has been a conscientious supporter of the Honor System and served two years as a Student Council representative. Carole is a member of three honor societies—National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll and Ken Klub, which she assists as secretary.

Swish!! The crowd goes wild as BILL WINTER makes another sensational shot to win for the Sandies. Unanimous choice for all-district basketball team, "Willie" belongs to the National Athletic Scholarship Society, Ken Klub, Hi-Y, and Allied Youth. Being FTA president took many hours; he also spent every spare moment promoting the Honor System.

Talented BARBARA WOODSON loves all phases of acting, radio work, and singing in operettas. "Babs" also has a definite liking for skiing. Her leadership was shown as assistant cheerleader, Allied Youth vice-president, and Future Homemakers president. She also holds membership in Thespians and National Honor Society.

Being president of the Platform Club, member of Ken Klub, National Honor Society, Allied Youth, Masque and Gavel, and the Student Council makes BARNEY YOUNG an unusually busy Sandie. This well-known Varsity Vic brought AHS honors last year when he placed first in state extemporaneous speaking and also first in boys' debate at the Baylor University tournament.



Her Majesty
The Queen

Queen Jeanet of the House of Jackson ascended the throne of Sandieland on November 9, 1950. Her infectious laugh and sincere manner endeared her to the student body which elected her by popular vote.

Queen Jeanet's sincere friendliness, helpfulness, which every good ruler should have, and her eagerness to serve each of her subjects is evident in the halls and social activities of AHS.

Naughty Marietta

The all-school production, "Naughty Marietta," with music by Victor Herbert, brought scenes of old New Orleans to the stage of AHS. The production was under the expert leadership of the directors: Miss Tennie Thompson, J. H. Flathers, and A. M. Autrey. Other teachers assisting were Mrs. Thomas Haynie, Charles C. Jones, Mrs. N. N. Whitworth, Charles Emmons, Rubert A. Taylor, Misses Adele Shows, Ellie Whitmore, Betty Bridges, and Francis Annis. The AHS Orchestra played the operetta score and Dixie Dice directed the dance routines. There were two complete casts with an all-star cast performing on the third night.

ONE ACT PLAYS

The dramatics department of Amarillo High School, headed by Mrs. N. N. Whitworth, presented many plays for the student body. Among them were "Romance Is a Racket," "A Wedding," "This Night Shall Pass," "The Trysting Place," and "When the Sun Rises."

Shown at top left, Barbara Woodson finds the surest way to make Alvin Hicks forget his gun in a scene from "Romance Is a Racket." In another scene from the same play Mary Lou Ivy and Mike Flynn show surprise at the astounding statements of Stanley Pittman.

Joe Saunders and Wanda Gassaway are shown in a scene from the serious play, "When the Sun Rises."

Bobby Osburn and Joe Benham are shown discovering the hiding place of Robert McGee in a scene from the hilarious comedy, "The Trysting Place."

BEFORE AND AFTER

These "on the spot" pictures show what goes on behind the scenes and the finished product.

Martha Daily, Bette Hickerson, and Carol Hamilton try out for a play to be presented by their dramatics class.

Learning the art of make-up are Joe Saunders, Travis Boles and Joe Benham.

A sunrise representing the dawn of mankind's understanding is viewed by Jimmie Painter, Nancy Jeffery, and Travis Boles in the Dramatics 30 presentation of "This Night Shall Pass."

Fitting action to words, Bob Raines, Bill Fitch, and Bill McCrary rehearse for a part in a play.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKERS AND DEBATERS

Miss Jessie Mercer, director of the extemporaneous speakers and debate teams, produced fine speakers through her conscientious work. These students participated in Interscholastic League speech activities as part of their regular curriculum.

Taking notes on current events are Allen Adkins, Gloria Weilenman, Bill McCrary, Margie Greer, John Jenkins, and Gail Loessner. (Hidden is Toby Wise.)

Nancy Bursey reviews her debate notes as Barney Young, Richard Thompson, and Eugenia Scott look on.

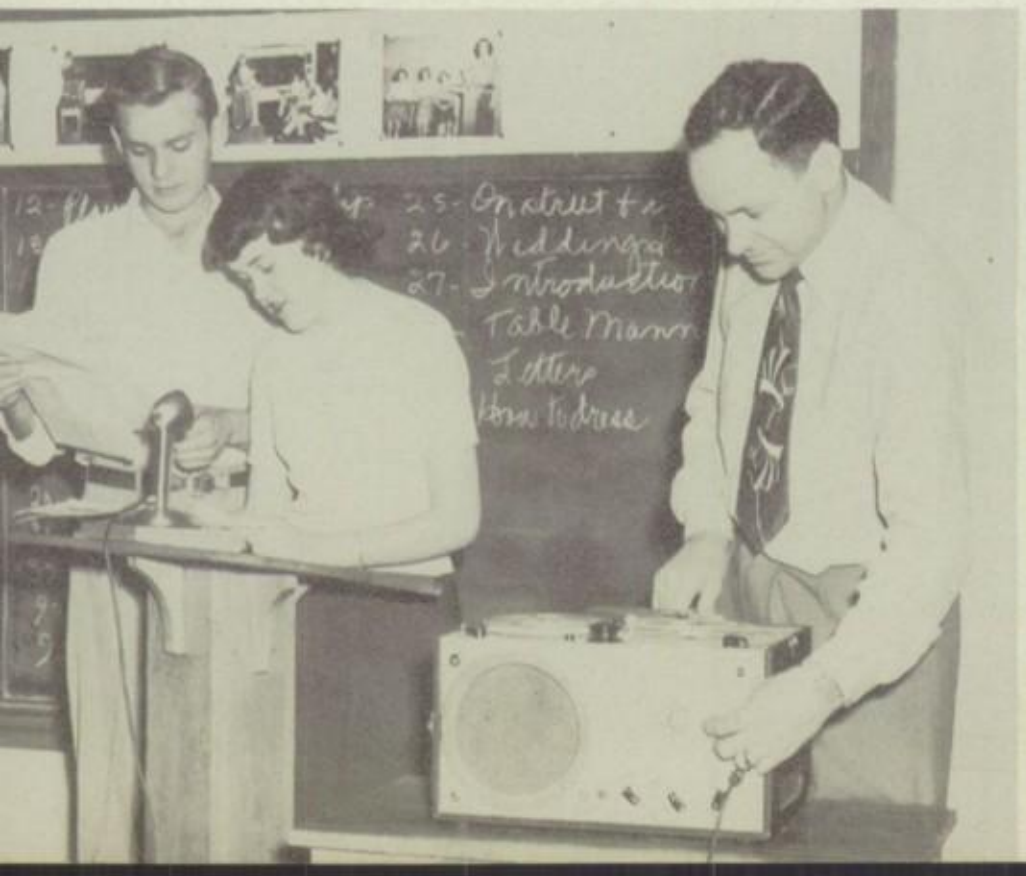
Dorothy Burnett, Robert Foster, and Sally Bivins listen attentively as Neal Allen makes an extemporaneous speech.

RADIO AND INTERPRETATION

Mr. J. H. Flathers, head of the radio and interpretation division of the speech department, ably instructed students in interpretive reading and phases of radio work. His students presented assemblies and took part in special programs presented by clubs.

Dramatizing the radio play, "The Necklace," are Steve Kelly, Dorothy Burnett, Don O'Neal, and Archie Warren.

Mr. J. H. Flathers records the voices of Clyll Smith and Sherwin Nance as they read scripts.



Practicing "Cartwheels" before the microphone are Gerald Adams, Kathleen Huber, and Ted Lock.

CONTEST PLAY

"Romeo and Juliet," by William Shakespeare, was chosen this year as the contest play for the Interscholastic League. It was presented in true Shakespearean style with no curtain between scenes and very little scenery. The romantic leads were taken by Shirley Feierabend and Bill McCrary.

Top left are Don O'Neal, Bill McCrary, Alvin Hicks and Ted Nickalus.

SPIRITUAL PROGRAMS

The Speech Department also presented programs of a more spiritual nature.

Each morning one of the students read the devotional. Shown above is Nancy Bursey.

On Fridays Dr. Boger read the International Sunday School Lesson.

In a scene from the Thanksgiving program Ray Whisenand is shown as Abraham Lincoln and Tabor Scott as a freed slave.

Jimmie Mae Pace appeared as Mary and Sue Cearley as the angel in the Christmas pageant.

Shepherds were Raymond Andrews, Joe Saunders, Jimmy Painter and Norman Eubanks.

AMARILLO—12 CHILDRESS—6

The Childress Bobcats proved a tough opponent for the Golden Sandstorm in the season opener. Tommy Donnell provided the game's big thrill when the Sandie tailback went 67 yards off tackle to score on the game's second play. Donnell also scored Amarillo's other touchdown, going over from the three, midway in the second period.

AMARILLO—6 ABILENE—40

The Eagles of Abilene avenged a 1949 defeat by the Sandies with a 40-6 stomping on the Abilene home field. Leon Evans saved the Sandstorm from a complete white-washing when he scored from the one yard line in the final period. Co-captain Doc Williams went out of the game when he aggravated a shoulder injury for the first casualty in what proved to be an injury-packed year.

AMARILLO—21 PASCHAL (Fort Worth)—27

Showing definite improvement over previous play, the Golden Sandstorm ran up a 14-7 halftime lead over Fort Worth's Paschal Panthers. The second half proved the Sandies' undoing, however, as the Panthers ran up 20 points to come out on the long end of a 27-21 score. Tommy Donnell tallied for the Sandies in the first quarter and fullback Leon Evans scored Amarillo's other two touchdowns in the second and fourth periods. Donald Neese converted after each TD.

AMARILLO—34 SHERMAN—7

The Sandies knocked the Sherman Bearcats from the ranks of the undefeated with a 34-7 win. The victory pulled the AHS squad up to the .500 mark with a 2-2 record for the season.

Kenneth McMullin led the Sandie offense with two touchdowns, and Ray Bingham, Stanley Bull and Jerry Raines added six points each to the Sandstorm scoring totals. Donald Neese converted after three Amarillo scores.

The Sandies' defense was improved over the earlier games, as the Black and Gold defenders intercepted several crucial passes.

AMARILLO—13 VERNON—0

Showing the best defensive play of the year, the Sandies shut out Vernon 13-0 for the season's first whitewashing of opposition. Wingback Ray Bingham tallied both Amarillo touchdowns, one each in the second and third periods. Donald Neese converted after the second touchdown. Fullback Kenneth McMullin compiled a punting average of 41 yards in four tries and Tommy Donnell led the ball carriers with 86 yards in 17 attempts.

AMARILLO—0 LUBBOCK 20

Amarillo and the Westerners played one of the year's top defensive games through almost three quarters before Lubbock scored three quick touchdowns in the final 13 minutes. A Tommy Donnell pass, intercepted with 20 seconds to go in the third period, was turned into a Lubbock score. The Westerners added two more touchdowns in the final quarter to sew up the contest.

The Golden Sandstorm got the most severe shock of the season just before the half when Captain Harold Swindell suffered a split spleen which took him out of action for the season.

Sandstorm end Donald Carter sets up a touchdown by taking a Tommy Donnell aerial in Amarillo's 34-7 upset of the Sherman Bobcats.

AMARILLO—0 ODESSA—41

Continuing their mastery of the Golden Sandstorm, the Odessa Bronchos handed the AHS squad their second straight whitewashing, this time to the tune of 41-0. Odessa tallied 21 points in the first period and added 20 more during the contest as they effectively spoiled the game which had been dedicated to the Sandies' injured captain, Harold Swindell.

AMARILLO—0 PAMPA—28

The Pampa Harvesters ran the Sandies' scoreless streak to 12 straight quarters as they won the district title for the second straight year with a 28-0 whitewashing. The defeat climaxed one of the greatest build-ups of school spirit in the history of AHS, including a week of pep rallies, a bonfire and parade.

AMARILLO—7 BORGER—13

Amarillo's Gold-and-Black footballers scored their first touchdown in four games in their Thanksgiving meeting with Borger Bulldogs. Hugh Cox took an 18-yard Jimmy Albright pass in the second period of the Turkey Day conflict to end the Sandies' scoring drouth and afford some consolation for the 13-7 final. Donald Neese made the conversion to complete the Amarillo scoring.

AMARILLO—20 PLAINVIEW—7

Howard Lynch sat out his last game as head coach as the Golden Sandstorm ended the 1950 season with a 20-7 win over the Plainview Bulldogs. Ray Bingham scored twice, Leon Evans added the third touchdown and Donald Neese booted the two extra points as 21 Seniors wore their Sandie uniforms for the last time.

The Golden Sandie basketballers under Coach T. G. Hull placed third among the four teams in the loop as district 1-AA completed its last year. The Sandies will compete in AAAA classification in the 1951-52 season.

The Sandies opened the year by beating Odessa and finished up with a win over Price College, but there weren't enough victories between the two as the squad rolled up a record of 10-11 for the full season and a mark of two wins and four losses in the district standings.

The Hullmen were victorious only over Plainview in conference play, dropping two games each to Borger and Pampa. The Sandies threw a scare into Borger, district champs in 1950-51, before the Bulldogs pulled a 41-40 win out of the fire in the first meeting of the squads, but that was the nearest they came to beating either Borger or Pampa.

Bill Winter, six-foot-four inch Sandie center, placed second in the district scoring with 84 points for the year. Winter was the only letterman back from the 1949-50 edition of the Sandstorm. John Jenkins came in ninth in the loop's individual totals with 40.

The Sandie hoopsters dropped in 269 points during the year against conference foes, compared with 258 for the opposition. The Black-and-Gold cagers tallied 902 points over the full year, against 888 for the opponents.

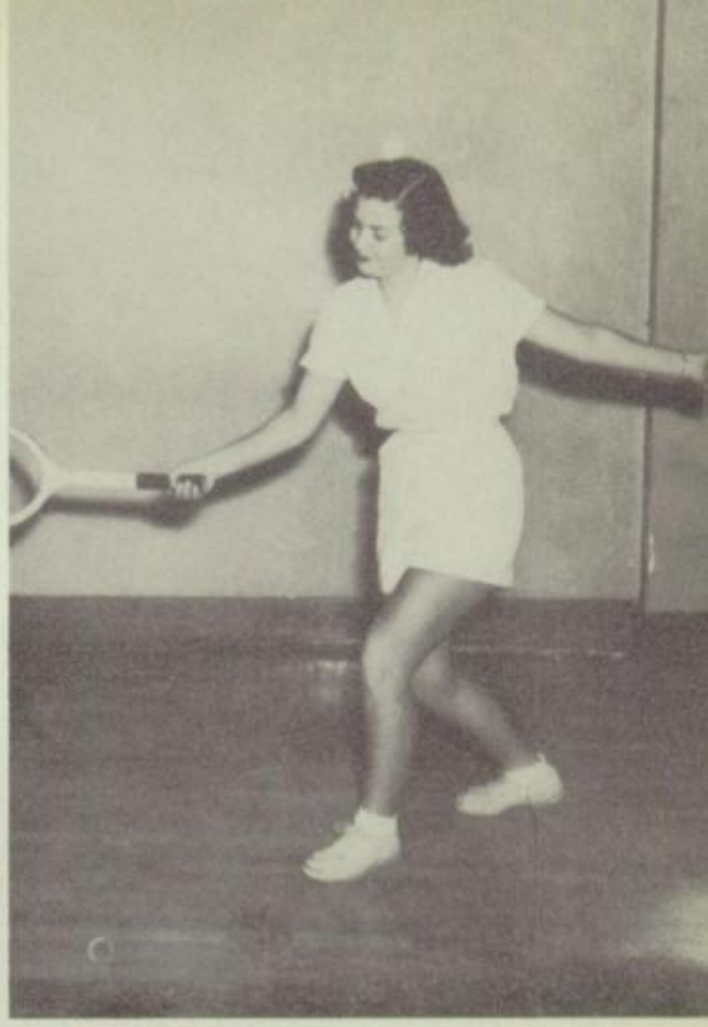
At the close of the tennis tournament, Prudence Brown emerged as singles champion.

TENNIS



Members of the AHS tennis team are: Juana Ree Owens, Gwen Morris, Prudence Brown, Diane Thomas, and Beth Sanders (kneeling).

Sally Taylor and Diane Thomas represented AHS in doubles.

Evelyn Short, Jan Rogers, Myrna Loy Clark, Patsy Koontz, Lucy Amerson, "Sissy" Jordan. Front row: Wynonah Boyd, Maxine McDowell, Jo Ann Stocker, Sue Hazelwood made up the second string.

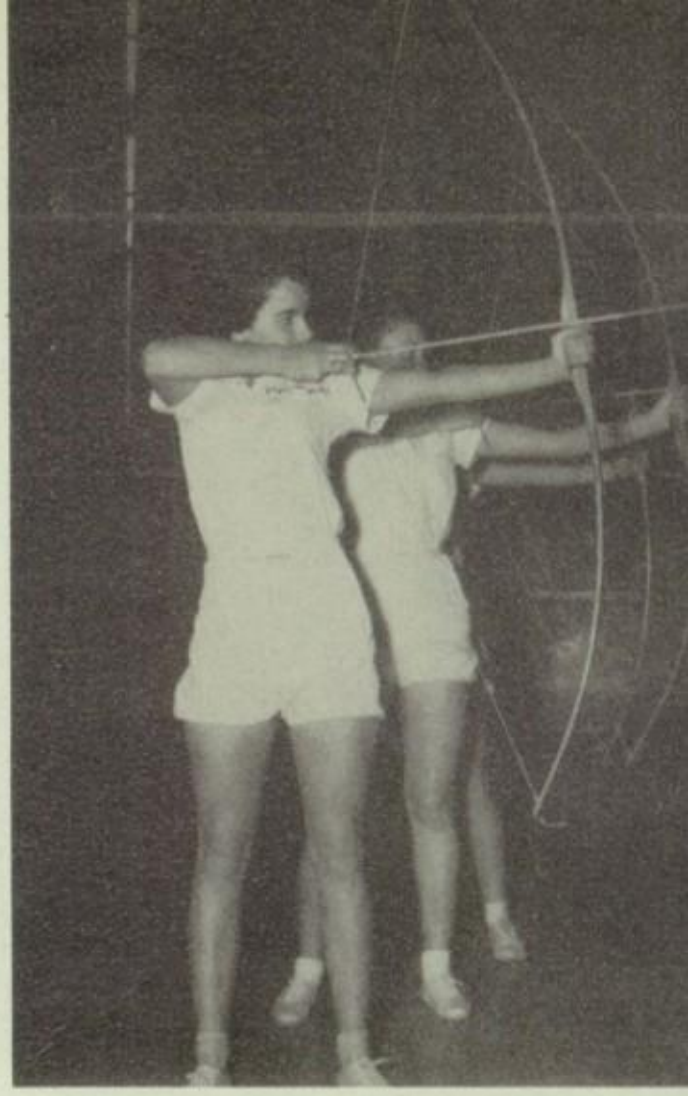
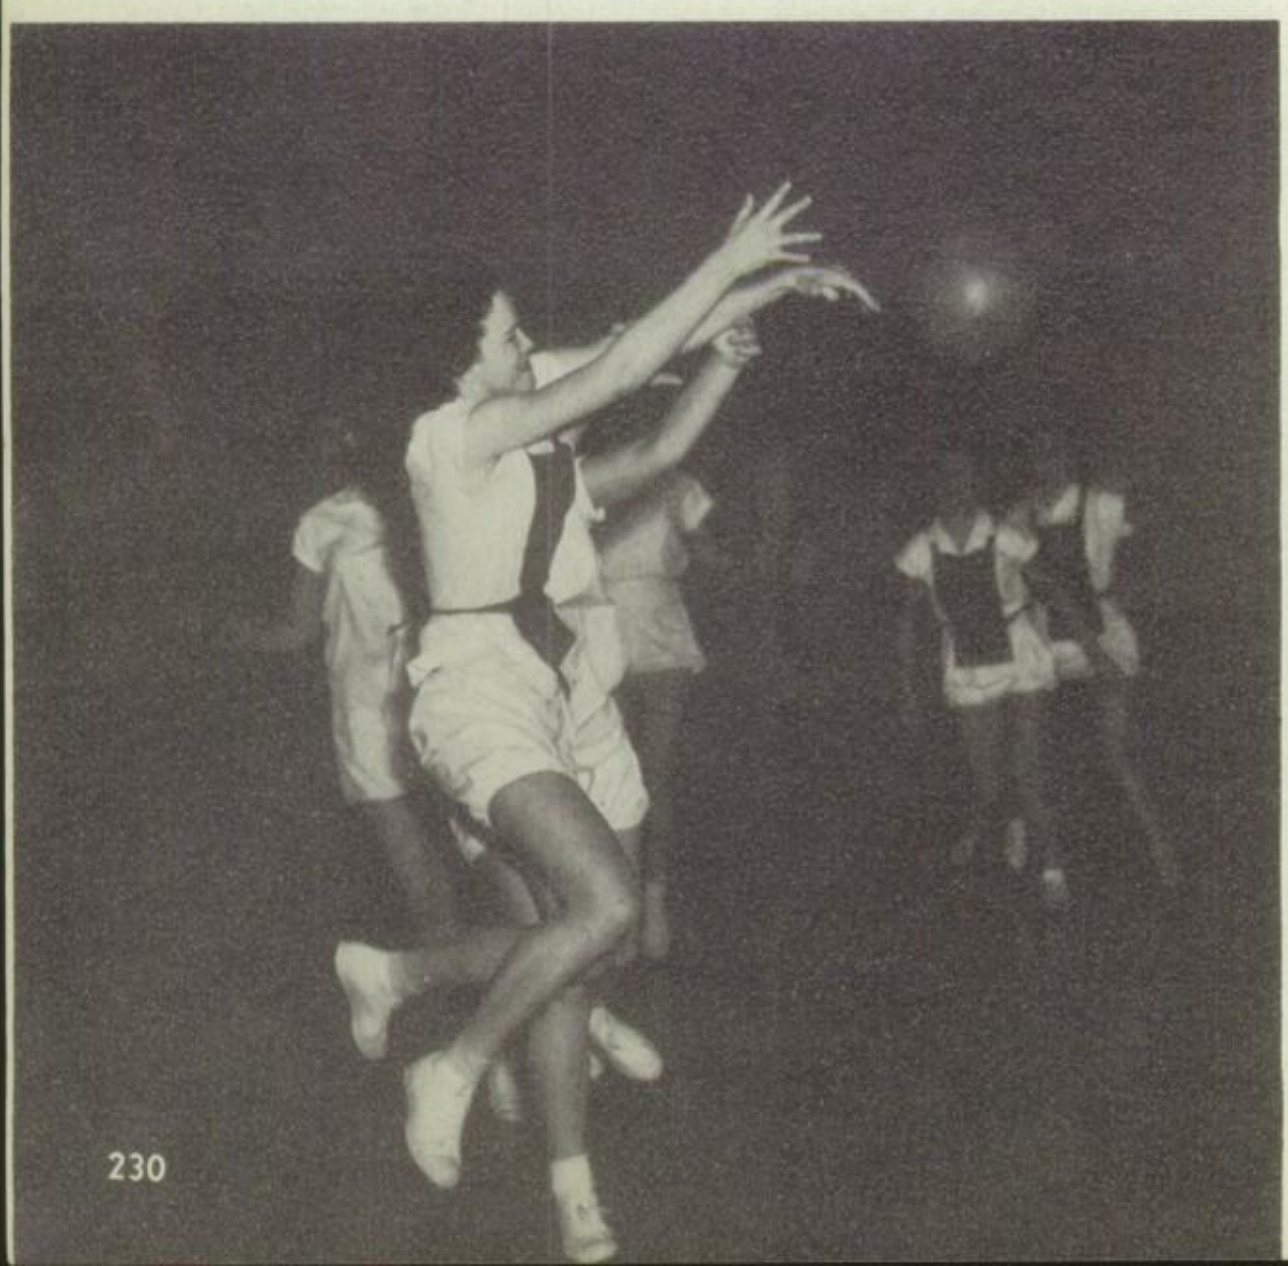
Beverly Boxwell and Linette Smith pull their arrows from the target as Glynanna Doche watches. Who got the bull's-eye?



This same Junior trio looks in top form as they skillfully aim their shots. Archery was presented in AHS for the first time this year. This ancient beautiful art has already found its way into the hearts of its many participants.

MISCELLANEOUS

Lola Christal leaps for the ball in a fast-moving basketball game.



Although not a strenuous game, ping-pong seems to be quite enjoyable to Jacky Baker and Sue McPherson.

A speedy return comes off the mallet of Sandra Hurt as she teams up with Judy Boozer in a set of ping-pong doubles.

PING-PONG AND BADMINTON

In an exciting game of badminton, Carol Hamilton hits the "birdie" as Maynie Carter looks on.

The Scorchers lived up to their name by burning the Devilettes to become first place winners.

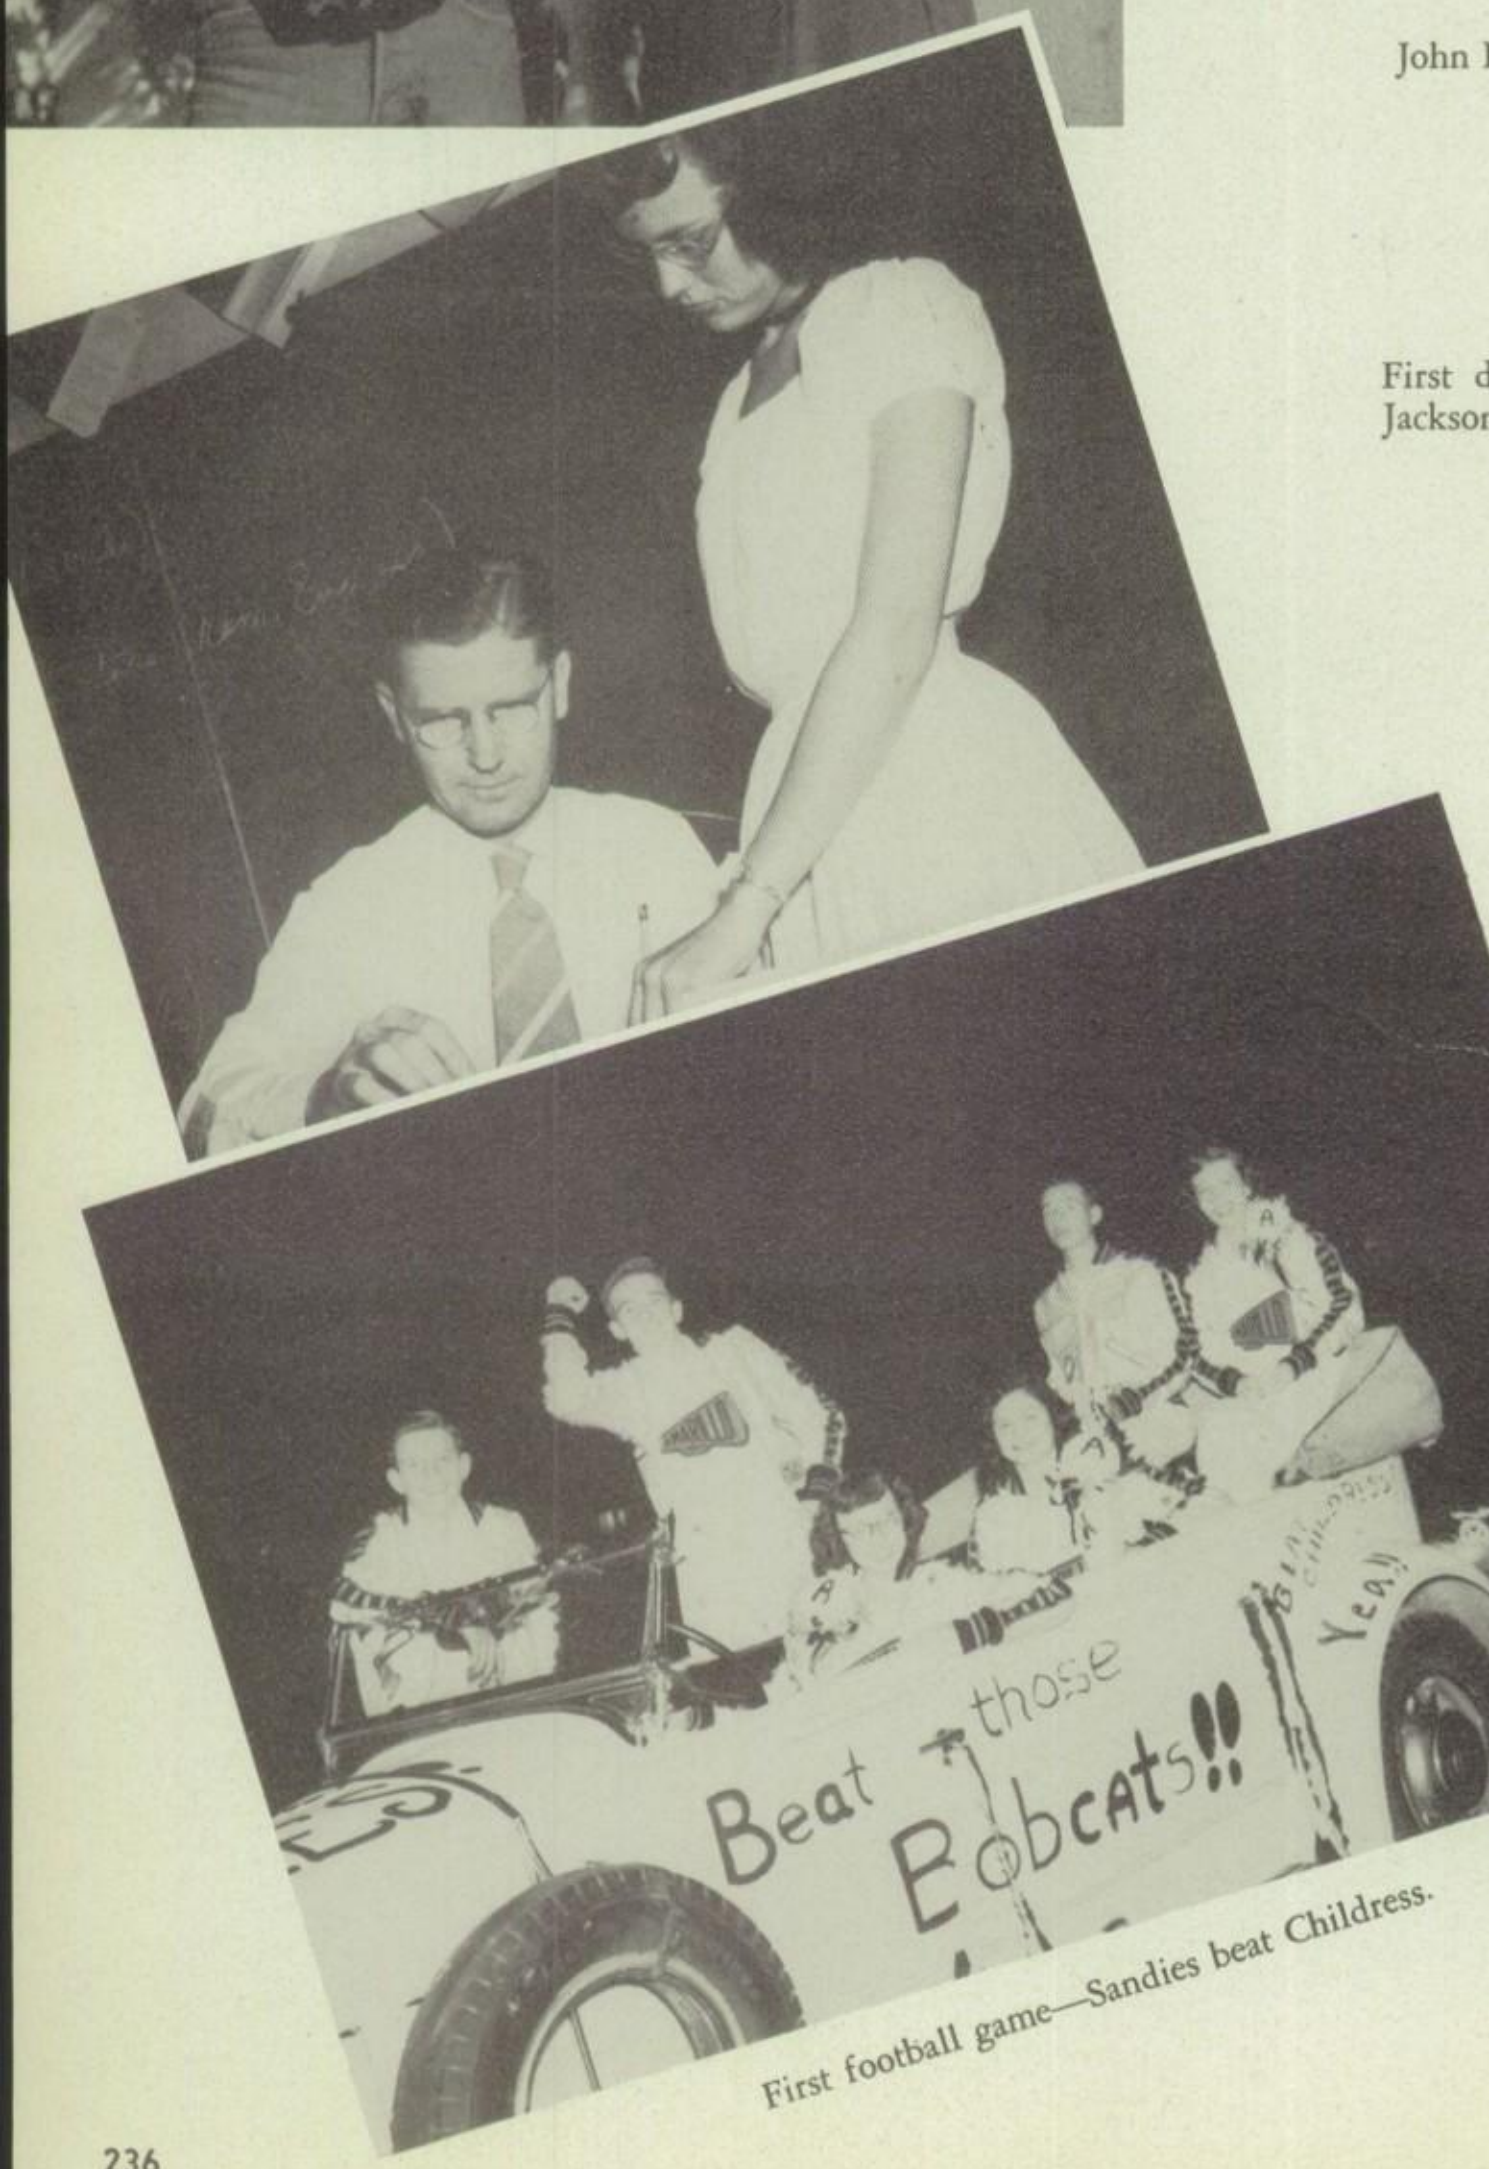
The Start O

Even from that first cheerful "Howdy" on the opening day of school, AHS student life was sprinkled with a conglomeration of football games, dances, and a spirit of youthful enthusiasm.

Varsity Vic and Kampus Kate
for September,
John Isaacs and Maxine Merriman



First day of registration, with Jeanet Jackson and Mr. Wilson.

First football game—Sandies beat Childress.

It All

1. At the Printer's Prom —Miss Printer's Ink (Bobby Osburn), with Bob Davis, Joe Benham, and (2) the Sandie Swingsters.

3. Jean Whittington and Marion Taylor at the Tri-State Fair.

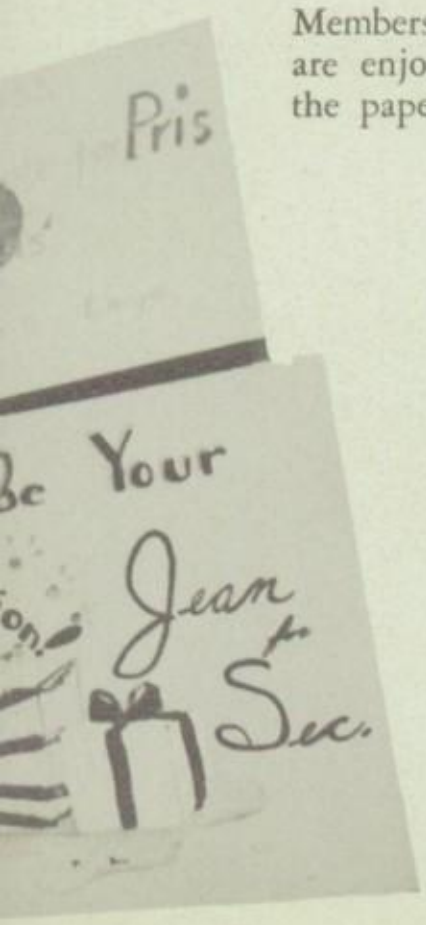
Tommy Cleek, Gayle Linkenhoger, Ed Jackson, Joe Saunders, and "Sleepy" Stuart—on their way to Lubbock for the football game.

Beverly Boxwell, Sheila Starks, and Jimmie Dell Atkinson sing at the pep rally before the Sandie-Vernon game.



Members of THE SANDSTORM staff are enjoying refreshments after folding the paper for distribution the next day.

Bonfire . . .

The Sandie supporters exceeded all previous records for pep and spirit just before Pampa game-time rolled around.

Varsity Vic and Kampus Kate
for November
Dan Bill Pavillard and Patsy Stanley

After attending the bonfire, these Sandie boosters await refreshments at the Amarillo "Market."

Students go all-out for the team as they rally in front of the Herring Hotel following a parade down Polk Street.

Pep Rallies . . .

S-A-N-D-I-E-S, yea!!! Melody Starks cheers the team on at the bonfire preceding the Sandie-Pampa game.

Oh, you Sandies!!! is the battle-cry of these football enthusiasts.

and Load

One of November's most memorable events was the Allied Youth's comedy "mock" coronation, presented as an assembly program to raise funds to send its president, Jerry Ramsey, to two youth conventions, the national AY convention in Buckhill Falls, Pennsylvania, and the Mid-Century White House Conference in Washington, D. C.

With the boys dressed as girls, and vice-versa, the "mock" coronation of the queen of the fictitious PSHS (Pullman Switch High School) was a hilarious presentation. Here is Sandie Carter escorting Corny "Cornelia" Mock.

Sandieland never saw a queen like AHS's Earnie "Earnestine" Foster, who held the scepter at Pullman Switch. Here "she" is throwing kisses to "her" "lawyul" subjects as "she" is accompanied by pages, Howard Childers and Dan Loving, and "her" honor guard, Calvin and Alvin Finley.

of Fun

Bill Winter is escorted by Carol Cleek, and Mike Flynn squires E. G. Sanders in the "mock" coronation.

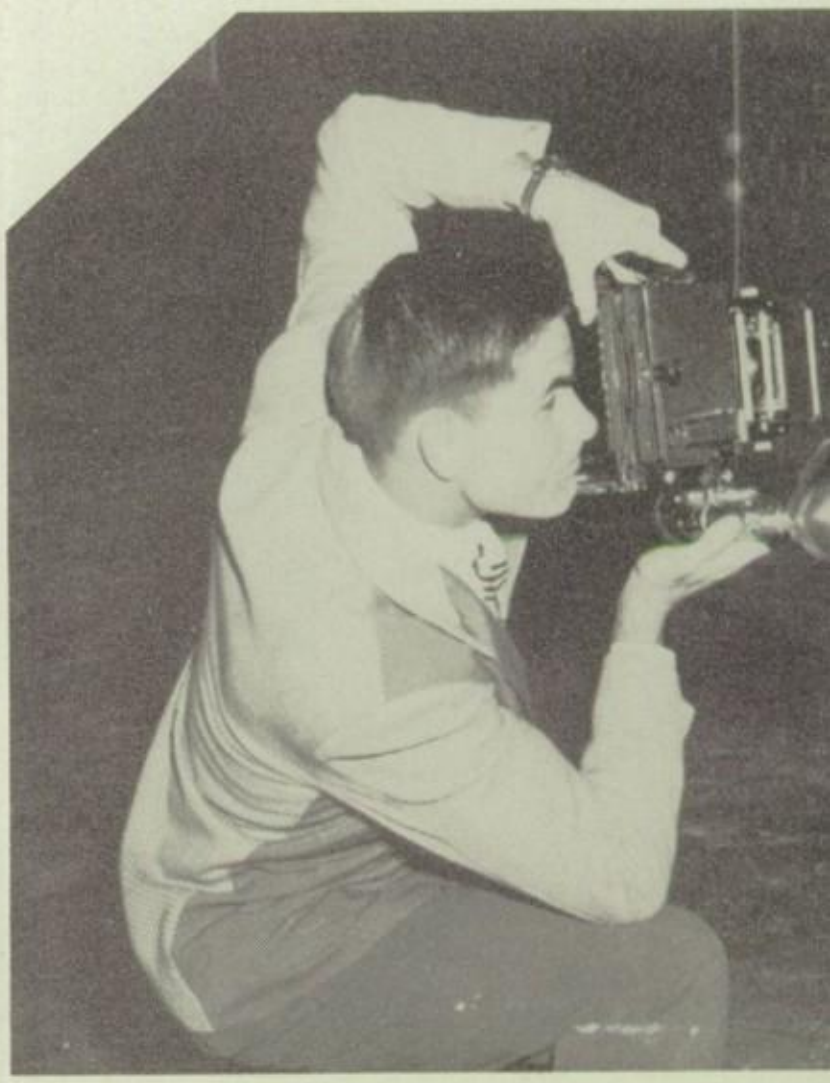
Christmas Parties . . .

Varsity Vic and Kampus Kate
for December,
Barney Young and Nita Johnson



AHS's popular new assistant principal, Mr. Kniseley, leads carols at the AY Christmas party.

"Camera-bug" Harold Swindell attempts to "shoot" Mack Gordon, Toby Dowell, and Stanley Bull at the Senior Mothers Club dance.

As another privilege of the good ole Honor System, dancing is held in the girls' gym during one of the jolly free periods.

AHS's DAR girl, Sue Allston, strives to entertain the Sandies' most valuable gridder, Bill Carter.

. . . and Holiday

"Victory, victory" is our cry!!!

The Plainview game found the weather cold but Sandie spirit high, as shown by Billy Rutter, Jurhee Speer, and other football fans of AHS.

Just Begun . . .

Having cokes at the "Market" are: Mack Gordon, Stanley Bull, Dale Johnson, Bettie Simpson, Hugh Cox, Elise Deal, Jerry Gardner and Bill Heien.

Enjoying intermission at a holiday dance are: Glynanna Doche, Kenneth McMullin, Donald Carter, Sheila Starks and John Ed Ekelund.

Giving food to the Children's Home was an all-school project.

Skiing . .

Attempting to skate on the none-too-smooth ice are Chuck Newman, John Isaacs, Sally Bivins, Jane Neely, Sally Sparks, Shirley Nelson, Joe Saunders, and Anne Clifford.

Enjoying a winter ski trip are: Dan Bill Pavillard, Charles Kirkpatrick, and Dale Albright.

"Howdy" . .

Varsity Vic and Kampus Kate
for February,
F. T. Crews and Priscilla Mullins

George Lokey gloats as he waits for his Corrigan date, Carol McMurtry, to pay for the dinner.

In observance of Corrigan Week, these Sandies do things typically "wrong-way" as Steve Curtis, Jerry Gardner, and Jackie Fyfe look on while Martha Daily, Joan Provus, and Denise Cole change a tire.

At the Football Banquet, Sandie coach Howard Lynch congratulates Bill Carter, recipient of the Globe-News award for being the Sandies' Most Valuable Player.

Pardner!

Behind-the-scenes hard workers are AHS's projectionists: Dan Graham, Delmos Hickmott, Bill Tyler, Donald Hood, Percy Reid, Mr. Anthony—sponsor, Forest Gray, Kenneth Gordy, Don Willingham.

This year the Student Council sponsored AHS's first annual Western Day. The hearty approval is evident in the size of the turn-out for the dance that night.

Jerrell Mulkey, Sherwin Nance, Diane Thomas, and "Doc" Williams enjoy themselves as they "Hoop-de-doo" at the Western Dance.

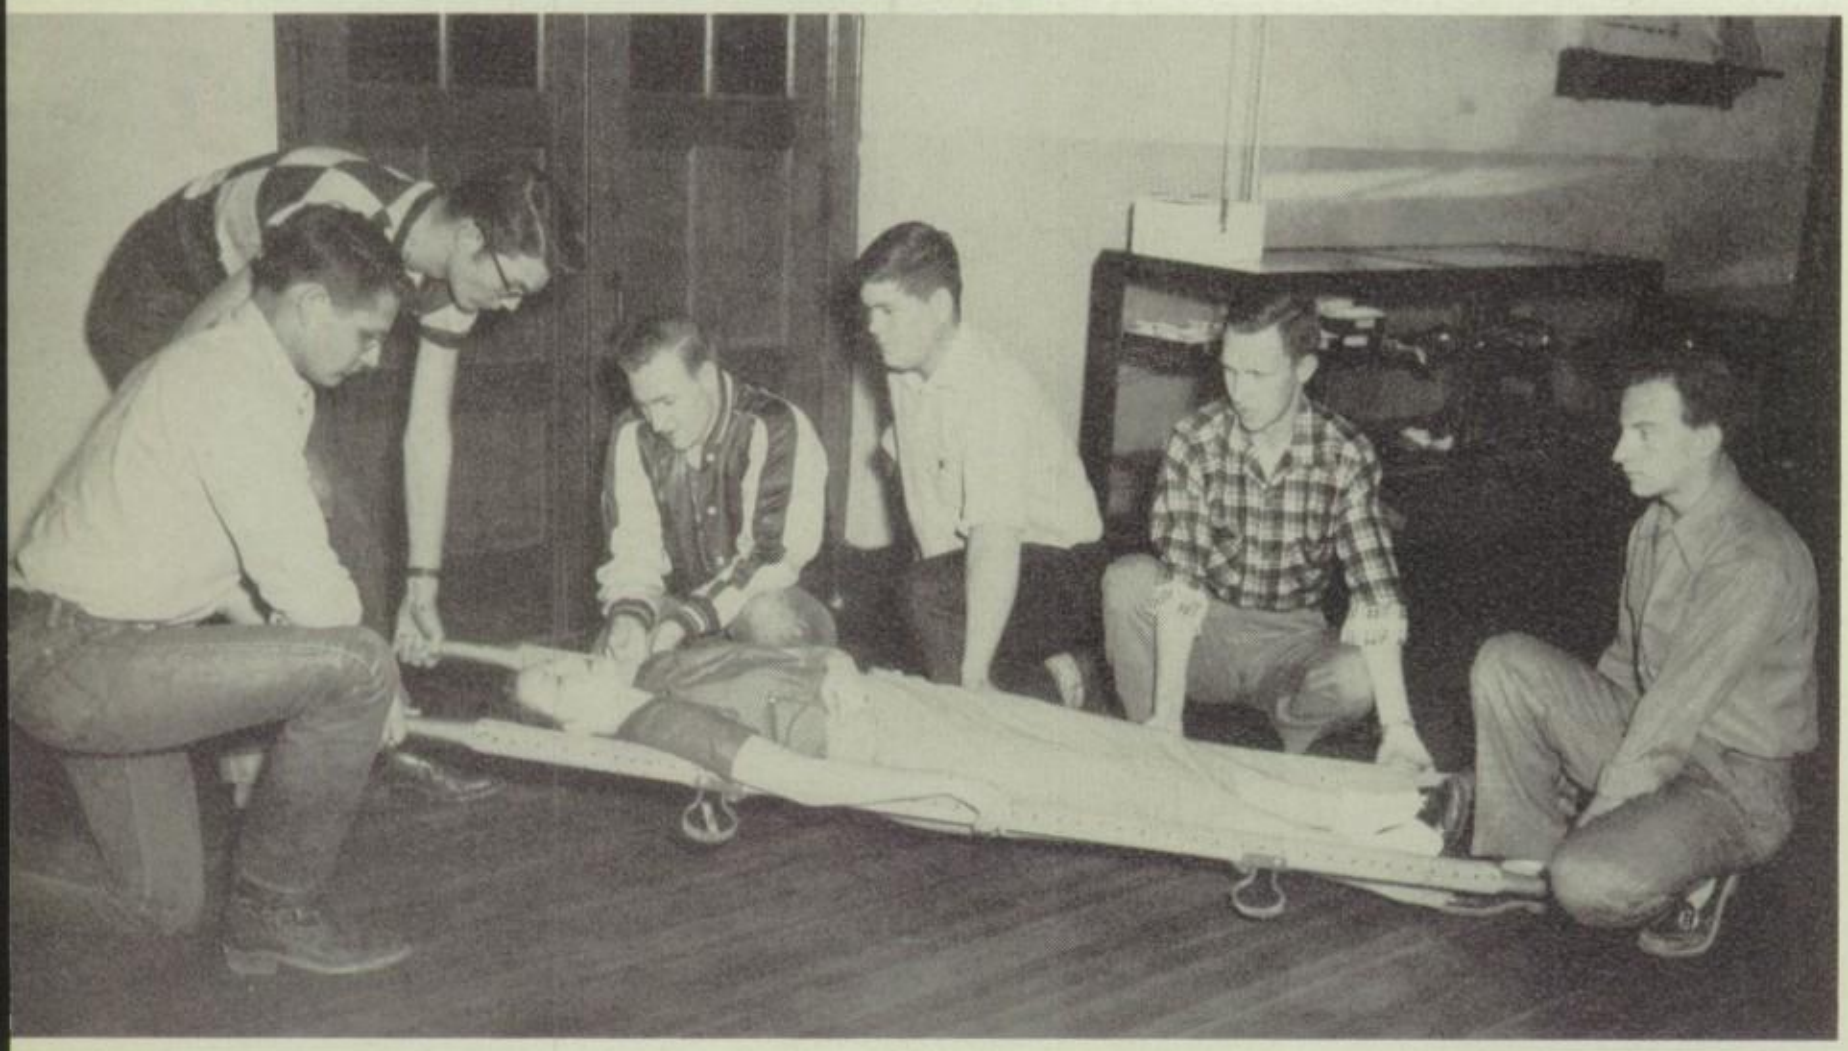
Sparkplug of the Sandie Swingsters is its versatile director, Claude Hedspeth, who doubles as president of the Sandie Band. Having devoted many hours of his time to school service, Claude is both a talented musician and an all-around fellow.

"Minute Men" administer first aid in emergencies. Left to right are: Joe Wirtz, Steve Kelly, "Doc" Williams, Monte Frazier, Norman Eubanks, Jerry Merchant. On stretcher is Charlotte Halley. Not pictured are: Jerrel Mulkey, Mack Gordon, Mahlon Davis.



Jane Moore
La Airosa's efficient bookkeeper

Enjoying candy and teddy bears are AHS "kiddies": Ida Miller, Ed Jackson, Bill Keaton, Rufus Schmidt, Jeanie Shannon, Jere Davidson, Damon Nutt, Pat Masters, Patty Lynes, and Jerry Raines.

Tally - Ho!

At the area FHA convention, Sue Dammier serves punch to Betty Chilcote and Nan Watkins.

As part of the planning committee, Marie Carthel, Mary Louise Phillips, and Birdie Turner confer as they prepare for 2000 guests at the area FHA convention.

"Yum-yum," Damon Nutt, Jeanie Shannon, and Bill Keaton agree as they munch on their Kid Day candy.

"Stick-'em-up!" says Patty Lynes to Rufus Schmidt, Ed Jackson, and Jere Davidson, as she plays a Kid Day prank.
